Welcome to Manchester Cathedral for this celebration of Holy Communion

Welcome to the Cathedral and Collegiate Church of St Mary, St Denys and St George in the heart of the City of Manchester. The building is the old mediaeval Parish Church of Manchester. King Henry V first granted it Collegiate status in 1421 and it became Manchester's Cathedral on the creation of the Diocese of Manchester in 1847. It is believed that there has been a church on or near this site for over a thousand years.

Sundays before Advent

In the period from All Saints' Day to Advent Sunday, Sundays are designated 'before Advent', and bring together a cluster of themes that November provides - All Saints', the Departed, Remembrance and the Kingship of Christ. This brings the Christian year to an end with a celebration both of the reality of God's rule and of the final ingathering into his kingdom. To signify this focus, the general liturgical colour is red—although it is gold on All Saints' Sunday and Christ the King.

The need for a strong Christian awareness of these truths, to counter the secular culture at this time of the year has never been greater. In the cycle of the seasons such an emphasis at the end of the year leads very naturally into the beginning of the new liturgical year, the season of Advent, when the same theme is developed from a slightly different angle. There is a long history of pre-Advent material that begins to anticipate what is to come, not least in the BCP provision for the Last Sunday after Trinity.

Celebrating 600 years

2021 is a special year for Manchester Cathedral as it marks the 600th anniversary of the granting of our first Royal charter establishing a collegiate church. Even in these uncertain times, an exciting programme of events for the whole family is planned and we hope to be able to share more details in due course.

Safeguarding

Manchester Cathedral works hard to create safe environments where children and young people are protected and where all people, especially those who may be vulnerable for any reason, are able to worship and pursue their faith journey with encouragement and in safety. We follow the policies and procedures detailed within the Cathedral Safeguarding Handbook. We act promptly on any complaints made, and work in partnership with Manchester Diocese, the police and social care services whenever appropriate to do so. Details of our policy and how to voice a concern can be found on a dedicated page of our website and on the noticeboard at the south porch.

Live streaming

Please note that most acts of worship in Manchester Cathedral are now live streamed. Although cameras are focused on those leading worship, please be aware that your image may be inadvertently captured and streamed. If you would like further information on the position of the camera at a particular act of worship, please ask Cathedral Staff upon arrival.

Visiting Manchester Cathedral from 19 July 2021

For your personal safety, the Dean and Chapter strongly encourage you to continue to wear face masks and use the hand sanitisers provided when visiting the Cathedral.

Hearing-loop

The Cathedral has a hearing-loop.
Please set your hearing aid to setting T.

Have you turned off your mobile phone?

Please make sure that you have turned off your mobile phone and any other electronic equipment that might interrupt the service.

Photography

Please do not use cameras, photo-imaging devices or recording equipment during the service.

Welcome to the Cathedral

We offer a very warm welcome to any who are visiting us today.

If you would normally receive communion in your own church you are very welcome to do so here. If you do not receive communion please feel free to come up for a blessing instead. Just bow your head when you come up so the Eucharistic Minister will know.

Gluten Free Wafer

If you require a gluten free communion wafer please indicate this by pointing to the Altar table as you come up to receive.

The Processional Hymn

sung by all

All my hope on God is founded;
He doth still my trust renew.
Me through change and chance he guideth,
Only good and only true.
God unknown,
He alone
Calls my heart to be his own.

Pride of man and earthly glory,
Sword and crown betray his trust;
What with care and toil he buildeth,
Tower and temple, fall to dust.
But God's power,
Hour by hour,
Is my temple and my tower.

God's great goodness aye endureth,
Deep his wisdom, passing thought:
Splendour, light and life attend him,
Beauty springeth out of naught.
Evermore
From his store
New-born worlds rise and adore.

Daily doth th'Almighty giver
Bounteous gifts on us bestow;
His desire our soul delighteth,
Pleasure leads us where we go.
Love doth stand
At his hand;
Joy doth wait on his command.

Still from man to God eternal Sacrifice of praise be done,
High above all praises praising
For the gift of Christ his Son.
Christ doth call
One and all:
Ye who follow shall not fall.

The Greeting

The President may say

President In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
All Amen.

Grace, mercy and peace
from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ
be with you.

All and also with you.

Words of welcome may be said by the President

Prayer of Preparation

All Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayers of Penitence

The Deacon uses these or other suitable words

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son Jesus Christ
to save us from our sins,
to be our advocate in heaven,
and to bring us to eternal life.

Let us confess our sins in penitence and faith, firmly resolved to keep God's commandments and to live in love and peace with all.

Silence is kept

All Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we have sinned against you and against our neighbour
in thought and word and deed,
through negligence, through weakness,
through our own deliberate fault.
We are truly sorry
and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
who died for us,
forgive us all that is past and grant that we may serve you in newness of life to the glory of your name.
Amen.

President Almighty God,
who forgives all who truly repent,
have mercy upon you,
pardon and deliver you from all your sins,
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in life eternal;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Gloria in excelsis

sung by the Choir

Gloria in excelsis Deo,
Et in terra pax hominibus
bonae voluntatis.
Laudamus te, benedicimus te,
adoramus te, glorificamus te.

Gratias agimus tibi propter magnam gloriam tuam.
Domine Deus, Rex caelestis, Deus Pater omnipotens.

Domine Fili unigenite,
Jesu Christe. Domine Deus,
Agnus Dei, Filius Patris.
Qui tollis peccata mundi,
miserere nobis.
Qui tollis peccata mundi,
suscipe deprecationem nostram.

Qui sedes ad dexteram Patris,
miserere nobis.

Quoniam tu solus sanctus,
tu solus Dominus,
tu solus altissimus, Jesu Christe,
cum Sancto Spiritu
in gloria Dei Patris.

Amen.

Please remain standing

*Glory be to God on high,
and in earth peace,
good will towards men.
We praise thee, we bless thee,
we worship thee, we glorify thee,*

*we give thanks to thee
for thy great glory,
O Lord God, heavenly King,
God the Father Almighty.*

*O Lord, the only-begotten Son
Jesu Christ; O Lord God,
Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
that takest away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us.
Thou that takest away
the sins of the world, receive our prayer.*

*Thou that sittest at the right hand
of God the Father,
have mercy upon us.*

*For thou only art holy;
thou only art the Lord;
thou only, O Christ,
with the Holy Ghost,
art most high in the glory
of God the Father.
Amen.*

The Collect

Almighty Father,
whose will is to restore all things
in your beloved Son, the King of all:
govern the hearts and minds of those in authority,
and bring the families of the nations,
divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin,
to be subject to his just and gentle rule;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

Daniel 12. 1-3

A reading from Daniel

“At that time Michael, the great prince, the protector of your people, shall arise. There shall be a time of anguish, such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever.

At the end the reader says

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Psalm 16

sung by the Choir

Preserve me, O God:
for in thee have I put my trust.
O my soul, thou hast said unto the Lord:
Thou art my God, my goods are nothing unto thee.
All my delight is upon the saints, that are in the earth:
and upon such as excel in virtue.

But they that run after another god:
shall have great trouble.
Their drink-offerings of blood will I not offer:
neither make mention of their names within my lips.
The Lord himself is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup:
thou shalt maintain my lot.
The lot is fallen unto me in a fair ground:
yea, I have a goodly heritage.
I will thank the Lord for giving me warning:
my reins also chasten me in the night-season.
I have set God always before me:
for he is on my right hand, therefore I shall not fall.
Wherefore my heart was glad, and my glory rejoiced:
my flesh also shall rest in hope.
For why? thou shalt not leave my soul in hell:
neither shalt thou suffer thy Holy One to see corruption.
Thou shalt shew me the path of life;
in thy presence is the fulness of joy:
and at thy right hand there is pleasure for evermore.

Second Reading

Hebrews 10. 11-14, 19-25

A reading from Hebrews

And every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, “he sat down at the right hand of God,” and since then has been waiting “until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.” For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.

Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful.

And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

At the end the reader says

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Please stand to sing

The Gradual Hymn

sung by all

Judge eternal, throned in splendour,
Lord of lords and King of kings,
With thy living fire of judgement
Purge this realm of bitter things:
Solace all its wide dominion
With the healing of thy wings.

Still the weary folk are pining
For the hour that brings release:
And the city's crowded clangour
Cries aloud for sin to cease;
And the homesteads and the woodlands
Plead in silence for their peace.

Crown, O God, thine own endeavour;
Cleave our darkness with thy sword;
Feed the faithless and the hungry
With the richness of thy word:
Cleanse the body of this nation
Through the glory of the Lord.

Deacon Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

Mark 13. 1-8

As he came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!” Then Jesus asked him, “Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.”

When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, “Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?” Then Jesus began to say to them, “Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and they will lead many astray. When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birth pangs.

At the end of the reading

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Commemoration

Most merciful and ever-living God, we remember those whom you have gathered from the storm of war into the peace of your presence:
grant that we, being faithful till death,
may receive with them the crown of life that never fades,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Prayers of Intercession

Let us pray for all who suffer as a result of conflict, and ask that God may give us peace:

For the service men and women who have died in the violence of war,
each one remembered by and known to God;
may God give peace.

All God give peace.

For those who love them in death as in life,
offering the distress of our grief
and the sadness of our loss;
may God give peace.

All God give peace.

For all members of the armed forces
who are in danger this day, remembering family, friends and all who pray for their safe return;
may God give peace.

All God give peace.

For civilian women, children and men whose lives are disfigured by war or terror, calling to mind in penitence
the anger and hatreds of humanity;
may God give peace.

All God give peace.

For peacemakers and peacekeepers,
who seek to keep this world secure and free;
may God give peace.

All God give peace.

For all who bear the burden and privilege of leadership, political, military and religious;
asking for gifts of wisdom and resolve in the search for reconciliation and peace;
may God give peace.

All God give peace.

O God of truth and justice,
we hold before you those whose memory we cherish,
and those whose names we will never know.
Help us to lift our eyes above the torment of this broken world, and grant us the grace to pray for those who wish us harm.
As we honour the past,
may we put our faith in your future;
for you are the source of life and hope,
now and for ever.

All Amen.

At the end of the prayers

Minister Merciful Father,
All accept these prayers
for the sake of your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.

All may exchange a sign of peace

Preparation of the Table and Taking of the Bread and Wine

The Offertory Hymn

sung by all

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home;

Under the shadow of thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting thou art God,
To endless years the same.

A thousand ages in thy sight
Are like an evening gone,
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home.

Preparation of the Table and Taking of the Bread and Wine

President Yours, Lord, is the greatness, the power,
the glory, the splendour, and the majesty;
for everything in heaven and on earth is yours.

All All things come from you,
and of your own do we give you.

The Eucharistic Prayer

President The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

President Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

President Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give thanks and praise.

You are worthy of our thanks and praise,
Lord God of truth,
for by the breath of your mouth
you have spoken your word, and all things have come into being.
You fashioned us in your image and placed us in the garden of your delight.
Though we chose the path of rebellion
you would not abandon your own.

Again and again you drew us into your covenant of grace.

You gave your people the law and taught us by your prophets to look for your reign of justice, mercy and peace.

As we watch for the signs of your kingdom on earth,
we echo the song of the angels in heaven,
evermore praising you and singing:

Choir Sanctus, sanctus, sanctus, Holy, holy, holy,
Dominus Deus Sabaoth. Lord God of hosts, Pleni sunt caeli et terra heaven and earth are full gloria tua. of thy glory.
Osanna in excelsis. Hosanna in the highest.

Benedictus qui venit
in nomine Domini.
Osanna in excelsis.

*Blessed is he that cometh
in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.*

President Lord God, you are the most holy one,
enthroned in splendour and light,
yet in the coming of your Son Jesus Christ
you reveal the power of your love made perfect in our human weakness.

Embracing our humanity,
Jesus showed us the way of salvation;
loving us to the end,
he gave himself to death for us;
dying for his own,
he set us free from the bonds of sin,
that we might rise and reign with him in glory.
On the night he gave up himself for us all he took bread and gave you thanks;
he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

In the same way, after supper
he took the cup and gave you thanks;
he gave it to them, saying:
Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

Therefore we proclaim the death that he suffered on the cross, we celebrate his resurrection, his bursting from the tomb, we rejoice that he reigns at your right hand on high and we long for his coming in glory.

As we recall the one, perfect sacrifice of our redemption,
Father, by your Holy Spirit let these gifts of your creation be to us the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ;
form us into the likeness of Christ and make us a perfect offering in your sight.
Look with favour on your people and in your mercy hear the cry of our hearts.

Bless the earth, heal the sick,
let the oppressed go free
and fill your Church with power from on high.

Gather your people from the ends of the earth to feast with The Blessed Virgin Mary, St Denys and St George and all your saints at the table in your kingdom, where the new creation is brought to perfection
in Jesus Christ our Lord;

by whom, and with whom, and in whom,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory be yours, almighty Father,
for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please sit and continue to pray

The Lord's Prayer

President As our Saviour taught us, so we pray

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours
now and for ever.
Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

President We break this bread to share in the body of Christ

All Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.

The Giving of Communion

President Draw near with faith.
Receive the body of our Lord Jesus Christ
which he gave for you,
and his blood which he shed for you.
Eat and drink
in remembrance that he died for you, and feed on him in your hearts
by faith with thanksgiving.

Prayer for Spiritual Holy Communion

I believe that you, O Jesus, are in the most holy Sacrament. I love you and desire you. Come into my heart. I embrace you. Never leave me. May the burning and most sweet power of your love, O Lord Jesus Christ, I beseech you, absorb my mind that I may die through love of your love, who were graciously pleased to die through love of my love.

Prayer of St Francis

The President receives communion and then says:

All The body of Christ
Amen.

All The blood of Christ
Amen.

Please bring your offering with you and place it in the collection tray as you come up for communion.

*O Lamb of God
that takest away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us.*

Agnus Dei,
qui tollis peccata mundi,
dona nobis pacem.

*O Lamb of God
that takest away the sins of the world,
grant us thy peace.*

After communion all stand when the President approaches the holy table

Prayer after Communion

President God of peace, whose Son Jesus Christ proclaimed the kingdom and restored the broken to wholeness of life:
look with compassion on the anguish of the world,
and by your healing power
make whole both people and nations;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

All Amen.

All Father of all, we give you thanks and praise,
that when we were still far off
you met us in your Son and brought us home.
Dying and living, he declared your love,
gave us grace, and opened the gate of glory.
May we who share Christ's body live his risen life;
we who drink his cup bring life to others;
we whom the Spirit lights give light to the world.
Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us,
so we and all your children shall be free,
and the whole earth live to praise your name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Post-Communion Hymn

sung by all

For the healing of the nations,
Lord, we pray with one accord,
for a just and equal sharing of the things that earth affords.
To a life of love in action
help us rise and pledge our word.

Lead us forward into freedom,
from despair your world release,
that, redeemed from war and hatred,
all may come and go in peace.
Show us how through care and goodness
Fear will die and hope increase.

All that kills abundant living,
let it from the earth be banned:
pride of status, race or schooling,
dogmas that obscure your plan.
In our common quest for justice may we hallow life's brief span

You, Creator-God, have written your great name on humankind;
for our growing in your likeness
bring the life of Christ to mind;
that by our response and service earth its destiny may find.

God save our gracious Queen,
Long live our noble Queen
God save the Queen
Send her victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us
God save the Queen.

Safeguarding at Manchester Cathedral

The Church of England has commissioned an independent audit of all Church of England cathedrals, reviewing their arrangements for keeping people safe from harm and abuse. In today's modern world there is a risk that the occurrence of an audit can be mistakenly taken up on social media or the press as indicating the imminent revelation of an abuse scandal in a particular cathedral. This is not the case, however, and we want to provide clarity and reassurance that every cathedral in England is engaging with the audit process. The audit's purpose is to bring in 'fresh eyes' to proactively enable learning and improvement in how cathedrals individually, and collectively, keep people safe; it is not a response to something bad having happened here or elsewhere.

'Cathedrals nationally are taking part in this exercise.'

The Social Care Institute for Excellence (SCIE) has been appointed to conduct the safeguarding audits. Two SCIE auditors will be visiting Manchester Cathedral from 30 November to 2 December 2021. The Chapter lead person for the audit will be Canon David Holgate.

As well as looking at our safeguarding files, our policies and training, they will also be meeting with a lot of our staff, key members of Chapter and the Dean. In addition, the auditors will be keen to hear from external agencies and perhaps from those directly involved in the heart of cathedral life, to hear about their understanding of keeping people safe in our cathedral, and to get their unique perspective on how we operate.

The auditors will be interested in asking questions such as:

- The general culture of the cathedral: are people treated with respect and care. Are there clear messages that bullying, mistreatment, abuse, and misuse of power are not tolerated?
- How the cathedral makes it known that they are there to help anyone who is being mistreated or abused in anyway, or has been in the past.
- People's awareness of the measures in place to make sure that people who pose a risk aren't in roles they shouldn't be.
- Do people know who to go to if they had concerns that someone was being hurt in some way, or that someone behaving inappropriately?
- Do people know what the process would be? How confident do they feel that their concerns would be, or have been, taken seriously?

- Do people see the cathedral taking on a role in helping people who, due to personal circumstances or crises, need help to keep safe?
- What helps and what gets in the way of the cathedral supporting people's welfare, preventing abuse and harm, and responding promptly and efficiently to concerns?

More information about our SCIE audit can be found on our website at <http://www.manchestercathedral.org/SCIE>.

Messiah (G F Handel) Saturday 11 December at 7.30pm

For many, a performance of Handel's Messiah is an essential part of the pre-Christmas period.

In this concert, the second in what we intend to be a long-term collaboration, Manchester Cathedral in partnership with Manchester Baroque will once again perform Handel's Oratorio Messiah with a full orchestra and the Cathedral Choir.

Like all Manchester Baroque concerts, the performance will utilise original eighteenth century instruments or modern replicas, performed at the pitch and with the scale of ensemble that Handel himself might have recognised.

Tickets for this performance of Handel's Messiah at Manchester Cathedral are priced from £15 to £25 and are available from <https://tinyurl.com/2uemczhm>

Choristers' Christmas Raffle 2021

Following on from the huge success of 2019, the choristers have again organised a Christmas raffle. Prizes include an amazing Christmas hamper and other festive delights. Proceeds from the raffle will go towards the Choristers' Fund, which supports musical and social activities for the children throughout the year.

Raffle tickets cost £1 each, or £5 for a book, and the winning ticket will be drawn during the week before Christmas. The children would be delighted to sell you a ticket (or two) between now and Christmas - if you would like to enter the draw, please speak to a chorister parent or one of the senior choristers after the service. Thank you!

Giving to Manchester Cathedral
Do you attend the cathedral regularly? If so would you help us?

We would be delighted if would you consider joining our planned giving scheme? We do all the work but your contribution would really help us plan for the future.

Are you a U.K. Tax payer?

Making the most of your giving

There are three very simple ways of maximising your giving to Manchester Cathedral.

If you are a UK tax-payer, please do consider one of the following so that we can reclaim the tax that you have already paid on your gift: an extra £2.50 per £10 to the Cathedral, at no extra cost to you.

Using the green Gift Aid envelopes

These can be used for any gift, large or small. It is essential, however, that the envelope is dated and properly endorsed with your name and address, otherwise the tax cannot be reclaimed.

Gift Aided planned giving

This is the recommended route for regular members of the congregation. There is no weekly filling-in to be done, as with the green envelopes, since each individual has a supply of their own envelope, or you can pay by regular standing order. For further details please contact Diane Johnston or any of the stewards or wardens.

Contactless donations now accepted

Contactless giving is a quick and easy way to make a donation to support your Cathedral. Visitors can now donate £3, £5 or £10 from any contactless Visa or MasterCard credit/debit card or via ApplePay Samsung and Android Pay.

Are you a non U.K. Tax payer?

You can still donate by putting your donation in the collection plate at services or in the donation boxes.

Please consider leaving a gift in your will

If you wish to pledge continued support to the Cathedral, you might want to consider leaving a gift in your will. If this is something you would like to do, please contact a member of the Clergy team or Anthony O'Connor, Director of Fundraising.

Thank you.
