

The Easter Liturgy

with Confirmation

Saturday 8 April 2023
6.00 pm

Welcome to Manchester Cathedral

At the Easter Liturgy Christians pass with Christ from darkness to light, from death to resurrection. In its fullest form, the service begins at dusk on Easter Eve and ends at dawn on Easter Day. Tonight we move through four stages in our service in rather less time, reserving the joy of our first communion of Easter for the morning. This enables those being confirmed to take communion in their home churches, surrounded in prayer by the local church family. It is an Easter Liturgy: we celebrate the Resurrection of the Lord. For God's mighty act in raising Jesus belongs to the darkness of the night and symbolizes the triumph of light over darkness. It was only the news of the resurrection that waited until the dawn of Easter morning.

The first stage is the Service of Light. We begin in darkness with the lighting of the Paschal Candle, the sign of the Risen Christ, from the new fire. We then fill the church with light from it and proclaim the resurrection in the ancient Easter Song of Praise, Exsultet.

In the second stage of the service, The Vigil, we settle down, by the light of the Paschal Candle and by the light of the resurrection faith, and we retell the story of our redemption in some of the great biblical stories of the Old Testament.

The third stage of the service is the Liturgy of Initiation. We all reaffirm our baptism vows and bless the water of Baptism. Candidates will be presented for Confirmation.

In the fourth stage, we greet one another, conscious of our Lord's risen presence and recalling his own greeting to his disciples as he came and stood among them saying – 'Peace be with you'.

The Dean & Canons would like to wish you all a very blessed and holy Easter.

Alleluia!

Safeguarding

Manchester Cathedral works hard to create safe environments where children and young people are protected and where all people, especially those who may be vulnerable for any reason, are able to worship and pursue their faith journey with encouragement and in safety. We follow the policies and procedures detailed within the Cathedral Safeguarding Handbook. We act promptly on any complaints made, and work in partnership with Manchester Diocese, the police and social care services whenever appropriate to do so. Details of our policy and how to voice a concern can be found on a dedicated page of our website and on the noticeboard at the south porch.

Live streaming

Please note that most acts of worship in Manchester Cathedral are now live streamed. Although cameras are focused on those leading worship, please be aware that your image may be inadvertently captured and streamed. If you would like further information on the position of the camera at a particular act of worship, please ask Cathedral Staff upon arrival.

Photography

Please do not use cameras, photo-imaging devices or recording equipment during the service.

Gift Aid

During the service there will not be a collection. However, donations may be made using the contactless giving terminals or by using the Gift Aid envelope that are available.

Hearing-loop

The Cathedral has a hearing-loop.
Please set your hearing aid to setting T.

Have you turned off your mobile phone?

Please make sure that you have turned off your mobile phone and any other electronic equipment that might interrupt the service.

The Gathering

The Service of Light

The clergy and Choir enter in silence.

The congregation stands and faces the tower and the Great West Doors.

The Bishop says

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness swept over the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, "let there be light." And there was light. Genesis 1.1-3

Bishop Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, on this most holy night, when our Lord Jesus Christ passed from death to life, the Church invites her children throughout the world to come together in vigil and prayer. This is the Passover of the Lord. We remember his death and resurrection by hearing his word and celebrating his mysteries, confident that we shall share his victory over death and live with him forever in God.

The new fire is kindled. The Bishop says this prayer

Eternal God,
who made this most holy night
to shine with the brightness of your one true light:
set us aflame with the fire of your love,
and bring us to the radiance of your heavenly glory;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Lighting of the Paschal Candle

The Bishop marks the Paschal Candle with the sign of the cross and with an alpha and omega (the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet), and says

Christ, yesterday and today,
the beginning and the end,
Alpha and Omega,
all time belongs to him and all ages;
to him be the glory and power through every age and for ever.

All Amen.

The Bishop inserts five nails into the Candle

Bishop By his holy and glorious wounds, may Christ our Lord guard and keep us.

All Amen.

With light taken from the new fire, the Bishop lights the Paschal Candle, saying:

Bishop May the light of Christ, rising in glory, banish all darkness from our hearts and minds.

Processional candles are lit, and the lighted Candle is carried through the Cathedral. There will be three stations at which the congregation is invited to light their individual candles from the Paschal Candle.

At each station the following is sung and the candles of the people are lit.

Cantor Lumen Christi. The Light of Christ.
All Deo gratias! Thanks be to God!

The procession continues to the nave altar and stops once more. The Paschal Candle is placed on a stand in the midst of the nave.

The Exsultet The Easter Song of Praise

The Cantor sings the Exsultet

Rejoice, heavenly powers! Sing, choirs of angels!
Exult, all creation around God's throne!
Jesus Christ, our King, is risen!
Sound the trumpet of salvation!
Rejoice, O earth, in shining splendour, radiant in the brightness of your King!
Christ has conquered! Glory fills you!
Darkness vanishes for ever!
Rejoice, O Mother Church! Exult in glory!
The risen Saviour, shines upon you!
Let this place resound with joy,
echoing the mighty song of all God's people!

Cantor

All

The Lord be with you and also with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give thanks and praise.

Cantor

It is indeed right that with full hearts and minds and voices we should praise you, the unseen God, the all-powerful Father, and his only Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. For Christ has ransomed us by his death, and paid for us the price of Adam's sin to our eternal Father.

This is our Passover feast,
when Christ, the true Lamb, is slain, whose blood consecrates the homes of all believers.

All

Glory to you for ever.

Cantor

This is the night when first you saved our fathers:
you freed the people of Israel from their slavery and led them dry-shod through the sea.

This is the night when Jesus Christ broke the chains of death and rose triumphant from the grave.

All

Glory to you for ever.

Cantor Most blessed of all nights,
chosen by God to see Christ rising from the dead!
Of this night scripture says:
“The night will be as clear as day:
it will become my light, my joy.”

Night truly blessed, when heaven is wedded to earth and man is reconciled with God!
Therefore, heavenly Father, in the joy of this night, receive our evening sacrifice of praise,
your Church's solemn offering.

All

Glory to you for ever.

Cantor

Accept this Easter candle,
a flame divided but undimmed,
a pillar of fire that glows to the honour of God.
Let it mingle with the lights of heaven and continue bravely burning to dispel the darkness of this night!
May the Morning Star which never sets find this flame still burning:
Christ, that Morning Star, who came back from the dead,
and shed his peaceful light on all mankind,
your Son who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

All

The Vigil

Hymn

During which lights are taken from the Easter Candle to illuminate the Bible from which the Vigil readings will be read.

Jesus lives! thy terrors now can, O Death, no more appal us; Jesus lives! by this we know thou, O grave, canst not enthrall us.
Alleluya!

Jesus lives! henceforth is death
but the gate of life immortal;
this shall calm our trembling breath,
when we pass its gloomy portal.
Alleluya!

Jesus lives! for us he died;
then, alone to Jesus living,
pure in my heart may we abide,
glory to our Saviour giving.
Alleluya!

Jesus lives! our hearts know well nought from us his love shall sever;
life, nor death, nor powers of hell tear us from his keeping ever.
Alleluya!

Jesus lives! to him the throne over all the world is given;
may we go where he is gone,
rest and reign with him in heaven.
Alleluya!

The Bishop introduces the Vigil

Bishop As we await the risen Christ, let us hear the record of God's saving deeds in history, recalling how he saved his people in ages past and in the fullness of time sent his Son to be our Redeemer;
and let us pray that through this Easter celebration God may bring to perfection in each of us
the saving work he has begun.

The congregation sits, with candles still alight.

The First Reading

Exodus 14.10-end; 15.20-21

A reading from the book of the Exodus:

As Pharaoh drew near, the Israelites looked back, and there were the Egyptians advancing on them. In great fear the Israelites cried out to the Lord. They said to Moses, 'Was it because there were no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? What have you done to us, bringing us out of Egypt? Is this not the very thing we told you in Egypt, "Let us alone and let us serve the Egyptians"? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness.' But Moses said to the people, 'Do not be afraid, stand firm, and see the deliverance that the Lord will accomplish for you today; for the Egyptians whom you see today you shall never see again. The Lord will fight for you, and you have only to keep still.'

Then the Lord said to Moses, 'Why do you cry out to me? Tell the Israelites to go forward. But you lift up your staff, and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, that the Israelites may go into the sea on dry ground. Then I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them; and so I will gain glory for myself over Pharaoh and all his army, his chariots, and his chariot drivers. And the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I have gained glory for myself over Pharaoh, his chariots, and his chariot drivers.'

The angel of God who was going before the Israelite army moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from in front of them and took its place behind them. It came between the army of Egypt and the army of Israel. And so the cloud was there with the darkness, and it lit up the night; one did not come near the other all night.

Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea. The Lord drove the sea back by a strong east wind all night, and turned the sea into dry land; and the waters were divided. The Israelites went into the sea on dry ground, the waters forming a wall for them on their right and on their left. The Egyptians pursued, and went into the sea after them, all of Pharaoh's horses, chariots, and chariot drivers. At the morning watch the Lord in the pillar of fire and cloud looked down upon the Egyptian army, and threw the Egyptian army into panic. He clogged their chariot wheels so that they turned with difficulty. The Egyptians said, 'Let us flee from the Israelites, for the Lord is fighting for them against Egypt.'

Then the Lord said to Moses, 'Stretch out your hand over the sea, so that the water may come back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots and chariot drivers.' So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at dawn the sea returned to its normal depth. As the Egyptians fled before it, the Lord tossed the Egyptians into the sea. The waters returned and covered the chariots and the chariot drivers, the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed them into the sea; not one of them remained. But the Israelites walked on dry ground through the sea, the waters forming a wall for them on their right and on their left.

Thus the Lord saved Israel that day from the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. Israel saw the great work that the Lord did against the Egyptians. So the people feared the Lord and believed in the Lord and in his servant Moses.

Then the prophet Miriam, Aaron's sister, took a tambourine in her hand; and all the women went out after her with tambourines and with dancing. And Miriam sang to them:

'Sing to the Lord, for he has triumphed gloriously;
horse and rider he has thrown into the sea.'

Silence is kept after the reading and then the Bishop says

Bishop The Lord is my strength and my might.

All He has become my salvation.

Bishop Lord God our redeemer, who heard the cry of your people and sent your servant Moses to lead them out of slavery:
 free us from the tyranny of sin and death and, by the leading of your Spirit, bring us to our promised land;
 through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Psalm 114

Chant Tonus Peregrinus

sung by the Choir

When Israel came out of Egypt:
and the house of Jacob from among the strange people,

Judah was his sanctuary:
and Israel his dominion.

The sea saw that, and fled:
Jordan was driven back.

The mountains skipped like rams:
and the little hills like young sheep.

What aileth thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest:
and thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back?

Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams:
and ye little hills, like young sheep?

Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord:
at the presence of the God of Jacob;

Who turned the hard rock into a standing water:
and the flint-stone into a springing well.

The Second Reading

Isaiah 55.1-11

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah:

Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters;
and you that have no money, come, buy and eat!
Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.
Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread,
and your labour for that which does not satisfy?
Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good,
and delight yourselves in rich food.
Incline your ear, and come to me;
listen, so that you may live.
I will make with you an everlasting covenant,
my steadfast, sure love for David.
See, I made him a witness to the peoples,
a leader and commander for the peoples.
See, you shall call nations that you do not know,

and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel,
for he has glorified you.
Seek the Lord while he may be found,
call upon him while he is near;
let the wicked forsake their way,
and the unrighteous their thoughts;
let them return to the Lord, that he may have mercy on them,
and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.
For my thoughts are not your thoughts,
nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord.
For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.

For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven,
and do not return there until they have watered the earth,
making it bring forth and sprout,
giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater,
so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth;
it shall not return to me empty,
but it shall accomplish that which I purpose,
and succeed in the thing for which I sent it.

Silence is kept after the reading and then the Bishop says

Bishop Whoever comes to Christ will never be hungry.
All All who believe in Christ will never thirst.

Most merciful God, who by the death and resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ delivered and saved the world:
grant that by faith in him who suffered on the cross
we may triumph in the power of his victory;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord.
All Amen.

New Testament Reading

Romans 6.3-11

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans:

Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin.

For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin, once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

At the end the reader says

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 28.1-10

and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.

All Alleluia.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ,
according to Matthew.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

After the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. And suddenly there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men. But the angel said to the women, 'Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, "He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him." This is my message for you.'

So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. Suddenly Jesus met them and said, 'Greetings!' And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshipped him. Then Jesus said to them, 'Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me.'

At the end the reader says

All This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

The Renewal of Baptismal Promises

Bishop In baptism, God calls us out of darkness into his marvellous light.
 To follow Christ means dying to sin and rising to new life with him.

Therefore I ask:

Bishop Do you turn to Christ?

Response I turn to Christ.

Bishop Do you repent of your sins?

Response I repent of my sins.

Bishop Do you renounce evil?

Response I renounce evil.

Anthem

sung by the Choir

During the anthem the Bishop leads the Congregation to the font

Like as the hart desireth the waterbrooks, so longeth my soul after thee, O God.
My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God.
When shall I come to appear before the presence of God?

My tears have been my meat day and night, while they daily say unto me, "Where is now thy God?"

Herbert Howells (1892-1983)

Psalm 42.1-3

All gather around the font

Prayer over the Water

Water is poured into the font and the Bishop says

Bishop Praise God who made heaven and earth,
All who keeps his promise for ever.

Bishop Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All It is right to give thanks and praise.

Bishop Father, we give you thanks and praise for your gift of water in creation;
for your Spirit, sweeping over the waters,
bringing light and life;
for your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, baptized in the river Jordan.

We bless you for your new creation,
brought to birth by water and the Spirit,
and for your grace bestowed upon us your children,
washing away our sins.

May your holy and life-giving Spirit move upon these waters.

Restore through them the beauty of your creation, and bring those who are baptized to new birth in the family of your Church.

Drown sin in the waters of judgement, anoint your children with power from on high,
and make them one with Christ in the freedom of your kingdom.

For all might, majesty, dominion and power are yours,
now and for ever.

All Amen.

Profession of Faith

The Bishop addresses all the people

Bishop Let us affirm our common faith in Jesus Christ.

Do you believe and trust in God the Father,
source of all being and life,
the one for whom we exist?

All I believe and trust in him.

Bishop Do you believe and trust in God the Son,
who took our human nature,
died for us and rose again?

All I believe and trust in him.

Bishop Do you believe and trust in God the Holy Spirit, who gives life to the people of God and makes Christ known in the world?

All I believe and trust in him.

Bishop This is the faith of the Church.

All This is our faith.
We believe and trust in one God,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Hymn

During the hymn the Bishop uses water from the font and sprinkles the congregation to remind them of their baptism into Christ. The Congregation return to the seats.

Ye choirs of new Jerusalem, your sweetest notes employ,
the Paschal victory to hymn
in strains of holy joy.

How Judah's Lion burst his chains, and crushed the serpent's head;
and brought with him, from death's domains,
the long-imprisoned dead.

From Hell's devouring jaws the prey alone our Leader bore;
his ransomed hosts pursue their way
where he hath gone before.

Triumphant in his glory now
his sceptre ruleth all, earth, heaven and hell before him bow and at his footstool fall.

While joyful thus we sing his praise,
his mercy we implore,
into his palace bright to bring
and keep us evermore.

All glory to the Father be,
all glory to the Son,
all glory, Holy Ghost, to thee,
while endless ages run.

Alleluia! Amen.

Confirmation

The candidates for confirmation sit. The congregation remains standing.

The Bishop invites the congregation to pray for those about to be confirmed

Bishop Almighty God,
we thank you for our fellowship in the household of faith
with all those who have been baptised in your name.
Keep us faithful to our baptism,
and so make us ready for that day when the whole creation shall be made perfect in your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ.

All Amen.

The Bishop addresses those who are to be confirmed, and says

Bishop Our help is in the name of the Lord,
All who has made heaven and earth.

Bishop Blessèd be the name of the Lord,
All now and for ever. Amen.

The Bishop extends his hands towards those to be confirmed and says

Bishop Almighty and ever-living God, you have given these your servants new birth in baptism by water and the Spirit, and have forgiven them all their sins.
 Let your Holy Spirit rest upon them:
 the Spirit of wisdom and understanding;
 the Spirit of counsel and inward strength;
 the Spirit of knowledge and true godliness;
 and let their delight be in the fear of the Lord.

All Amen.

The candidates for confirmation stand with the ministers presenting them. The rest of the congregation sits. The candidates are presented to the Bishop in turn.

The Bishop anoints and addresses each candidate by name

 N, God has called you by name and made you his own.

He then lays his hands on the head of each, saying

 Confirm, O Lord, your servant N, with your Holy Spirit.

All Amen.

When all have been anointed and confirmed and have returned to their places, the Bishop invites the people to pray with him.

All Defend, O Lord,
 these your servants with your heavenly grace,
 that they may continue yours for ever,
 and daily increase in your Holy Spirit more and more until they come to your everlasting kingdom.
 Amen.

The Peace

Bishop The risen Christ came and stood among his disciples and said "Peace be with you".
 Then were they glad when they saw the Lord.

All The peace of the Lord be always with you and also with you.

Bishop Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

All may exchange a sign of peace.

The Sending Out

The Blessing

Bishop God the Father,
by whose love Christ was raised from the dead,
open to you who believe the gates of everlasting life.

All Amen.

God the Son,
who in bursting from the grave has won a glorious victory,
give you joy as you share in the Easter faith.

All Amen.

God the Holy Spirit,
who filled the disciples with the life of the risen Lord, empower you and fill you with Christ's peace.

All Amen.

And the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All Amen.

Hymn

Thine be the glory, risen, conquering Son;
endless is the victory, thou o'er death hast won;
angels in bright raiment rolled the stone away,
kept the folded grave clothes where thy body lay.

*Thine be the glory, risen conquering Son,
endless is the victory, thou o'er death hast won.*

Lo! Jesus meets us, risen from the tomb;
Lovingly he greets us, scatters fear and gloom;
let the Church with gladness, hymns of triumph sing;
for her Lord now liveth, death hath lost its sting.

Thine be the glory...

No more we doubt thee, glorious Prince of life;
life is naught without thee; aid us in our strife;
make us more than conquerors, through thy deathless love:
bring us safe through Jordan to thy home above.

Thine be the glory...
