Welcome to Manchester Cathedral
for this celebration of the Holy Eucharist

Sunday 27th August
6.00 pm
Welcome to Manchester Cathedral
Welcome to the Cathedral and Collegiate Church of St Mary, St Denys and St George in the heart of the City of Manchester. The building is the old mediaeval Parish Church of Manchester. King Henry V first granted it Collegiate status in 1421 and it became Manchester’s Cathedral on the creation of the Diocese of Manchester in 1847. It is believed that there has been a church on or near this site for over a thousand years.

Safeguarding
Manchester Cathedral works hard to create safe environments where children and young people are protected and where all people, especially those who may be vulnerable for any reason, are able to worship and pursue their faith journey with encouragement and in safety. We follow the policies and procedures detailed within the Cathedral Safeguarding Handbook. We act promptly on any complaints made, and work in partnership with Manchester Diocese, the police and social care services whenever appropriate to do so. Details of our policy and how to voice a concern can be found on a dedicated page of our website and on the noticeboard at the south porch.

Live streaming
Please note that most acts of worship in Manchester Cathedral are now live streamed. Although cameras are focused on those leading worship, please be aware that your image may be inadvertently captured and streamed. If you would like further information on the position of the camera at a particular act of worship, please ask Cathedral Staff upon arrival.

Photography
Please do not use cameras, photo-imaging devices or recording equipment during the service.

Supporting the Cathedral
If you would like to donate to the work of the Cathedral you can donate using this QR Code. Additionally, if you would like the Cathedral to reclaim the tax that you have paid on the donation, at no cost to yourself, please use the Gift Aid declaration box.

Alternatively, please donate using one of the Cathedral Gift-Aid envelopes. Thank you.
Hearing-loop
The Cathedral has a hearing-loop.
Please set your hearing aid to setting T.

Have you turned off your mobile phone?
Please make sure that you have turned off your mobile phone and any other electronic equipment that might interrupt the service.

Receiving Holy Communion
We offer a very warm welcome to any who are visiting us today. If you would normally receive communion in your own church you are very welcome to do so here. If you do not receive communion please feel free to come up for a blessing instead - simply bow your head when you come up so the Eucharistic Minister will know.

If you require a gluten free communion wafer please inform a steward before the service. Please note that the wine may contain traces of gluten.

Communicants are asked not to dip communion wafers into the wine.

Opening Song – ‘Come People of the Risen King’

Come, people of the risen King, who delight to bring him praise.
Come, all and tune your hearts to sing to the Morning Star of grace.
From the shifting shadows of the earth
we will lift our eyes to him, where steady arms of mercy reach to gather children in.

Rejoice! Rejoice! Let every tongue rejoice!

One heart, one voice, O Church of Christ, rejoice!

Come, those whose joy is morning sun and those weeping through the night.
Come, those who tell of battles won,
and those struggling in the fight.
For his perfect love will never change,
and his mercies never cease, but follow us through all our days with the certain hope of peace.

Rejoice! Rejoice! Let every tongue rejoice!

One heart, one voice, O Church of Christ, rejoice!

Come, young and old from every land,
all people of the faith.
Come, those with full or empty hands,
find the riches of his grace.
Over all the world, God’s people sing, shore to shore we hear them call,
the truth that cries through every age;
‘Our God is all in all’.

Rejoice! Rejoice! Let every tongue rejoice!

One heart, one voice, O Church of Christ, rejoice!

Welcome and Greeting

President In the name of God, Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer.
All Amen.

President Grace, mercy and peace from God and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you All and also with you.

The Rt Revd Dr David Walker, Bishop of Manchester greets the people and welcomes the congregation.

Prayers of Penitence

Prayers of penitence are said

Deacon My dear friends as we prepare to celebrate the presence of Christ in word and Sacrament let us first call to mind and confess our sins.

Deacon Friend of sinners, you bring hope in our despair Lord, have mercy.
All Lord, have mercy.

Deacon Healer of the sick, you give strength in our weakness. Christ, have mercy.
All Christ, have mercy.

Deacon Destroyer of evil, you bring life in our dying. Lord have mercy.
All Lord have mercy.

The president declares God’s forgiveness

President May the God of love and power forgive you and free you from your sins, heal and strengthen you by his Spirit. and raise you to new life in Christ our Lord.
All Amen.
The Collect

President Let us pray.

A short time of silent prayer follows, then the president prays the Collect, drawn on this occasion from ‘Living in Love and Faith’ material

President Grant to your people, good Lord, the spirit of unity, that we may dwell together in your love, and so bear to the world the ointment of your healing and the dew of your blessing; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God now and forever.

All Amen.

Please sit

The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading Isaiah 43:18–21

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah:

Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

The wild animals will honour me, the jackals and the ostriches; for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, the people whom I formed for myself so that they might declare my praise.

At the end of the reading the reader says

Reader For the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.
Psalm 100

All The Lord is gracious;
his steadfast love is everlasting.

O be joyful in the Lord, all the earth; serve the Lord with gladness and come before his presence with a song. Know that the Lord is God; it is he that has made us and we are his; we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

All The Lord is gracious;
his steadfast love is everlasting.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and bless his name. For the Lord is gracious; his steadfast love is everlasting, and his faithfulness endures from generation to generation.

All The Lord is gracious;
his steadfast love is everlasting.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 13:1-8a

A reading from the First Letter to the Corinthians:

If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends.

At the end of the reading the reader says

Reader For the word of the Lord.
All Thanks be to God.

Please stand if you are able Deacon  Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
All  Glory to you, O Lord.

Deacon  Jesus put before them another parable: ‘The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field; it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches.’

He told them another parable: ‘The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened.’

Jesus told the crowds all these things in parables; without a parable he told them nothing. This was to fulfil what had been spoken through the prophet: ‘I will open my mouth to speak in parables; I will proclaim what has been hidden from the foundation of the world.

Deacon  This is the Gospel of the Lord.
All  Praise to you, O Christ.

Please sit

Sermon

The Revd Alexa McDonnell

Prayers of Intercession

Prayers of Intercession, prepared by Archdeacon Rachel Mann, are offered in diverse voices.

Please stand, if you are able
The Liturgy of the Sacrament

The Peace

President Jesus said: ‘Love one another; as I have loved you, so you are to love one another.’

The Peace of the Lord be always with you

All and also with you.

Deacon Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

All may exchange a sign of peace

The Offertory Song ‘I Surrender All’

During the song, a collection for the mission and aims of the Cathedral will be taken. Please use the Gift Aid envelope that is with this order of service. Alternatively, please donate using the QR Code found on page 2. Online worshippers may donate via this link: www.manchestercathedral.org/get-involved/donate

All to Jesus I surrender,
all to him I freely give;
I will ever love and trust him,
in his presence daily live.
    I surrender all, I surrender all;
    All to thee, my blessed Saviour,
    I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender,
make me, Saviour, wholly thine;
let me feel thy Holy Spirit,
truly know that thou art mine.
    I surrender all…

All to Jesus I surrender,
Lord, I give myself to thee;
fill me with thy love and power,
let thy blessing fall on me.
    I surrender all…

The Eucharistic Prayer

President The Lord be with you,
All and also with you.

President Lift up your hearts.
All We lift them to the Lord.

President Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All It is right to give thanks and praise.

President It is right to praise you,
Father, Lord of all creation;
in your love you made us for yourself.
When we turned away
you did not reject us,
but came to meet us in your Son.

All You embraced us as your children and welcomed us to sit and eat with you.

President In Christ you shared our life that we might live in him and he in us.
All He opened his arms of love upon the cross and made for all the perfect sacrifice for sin.

President On the night he was betrayed, at supper with his friends he took bread, and gave you thanks;
he broke it and gave it to them, saying:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

All Father, we do this in remembrance of him:
his body is the bread of life.

President At the end of supper, taking the cup of wine,
he gave you thanks, and said:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant,
which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins;
do this in remembrance of me.

All Father, we do this in remembrance of him:
his blood is shed for all.
As we proclaim his death and celebrate his rising in glory, send your Holy Spirit that this bread and this wine may be to us the body and blood of your dear Son.

As we eat and drink these holy gifts make us one in Christ, our risen Lord.

With your whole Church throughout the world we offer you this sacrifice of praise and lift our voice to join the eternal song of heaven:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

The Lord's Prayer

Please say the Lord's Prayer in the language of your choice

As our Saviour taught us, so we pray.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The president breaks the consecrated bread and says

Every time we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.
Communion

The invitation to Communion is said

President    Come to this table, not because you must but because you may,
             not because you are strong, but because you are weak.
             Come, not because any goodness of your own gives you a right to come,
             but because we all need mercy and help.
             Come, because you love the Lord a little and would like to love him more.
             Come, because he loved you and gave himself for you.
             Come and meet the risen Christ, for we are his Body.

All          Amen.

Please be seated

Agnus Dei

The Agnus Dei is said as the bread is broken

All          Lamb of God,
             you take away the sin of the world:
             have mercy on us.

          Lamb of God,
          you take away the sin of the world:
          have mercy on us.

          Lamb of God,
          you take away the sin of the world:
          grant us peace.

The president and people receive communion. Authorized words of distribution are used and the communicant replies

          Amen.

Members of all Christian Churches are welcome to receive Holy Communion. If you wish to receive a blessing instead, please keep your hands down.

Holy Communion will be offered in both kinds (that is in both elements of bread and wine). If you prefer, continuing to receive only bread is also permitted. Consecrated bread must not be intincted (dipped) in the wine.

Gluten-free wafers are available. Please let the minister know as you approach for Communion. Please follow the directions of the stewards.
Communion Song ‘Remembrance’

Oh, how could it be that my God would welcome me into this mystery?
say, "Eat this bread, take this wine"
now the simple made divine for any to receive.

*By your mercy
we come to your table.*

*By your grace
you are making us faithful.*

Lord, we remember you
and remembrance leads us to worship,
and as we worship you
our worship leads to communion.
We respond to your invitation,
we remember you.

See his body, his blood,
know that he has overcome.
Every trial we will face
none too lost to be saved, none too broken or ashamed,
all are welcome in this place.

*By your mercy
we come to your table.*

*By your grace
you are making us faithful.*

Lord, we remember you
and remembrance leads us to worship,
and as we worship you
our worship leads to communion.
We respond to your invitation,
we remember you.

Dying, you destroyed our death.
Rising, you restored our life.
Lord Jesus, come in glory!
Lord Jesus, come in glory!
By your mercy
we come to your table.
By your grace
you are making us faithful.

Lord, we remember you
and remembrance leads us to worship,
and as we worship you
our worship leads to communion.
We respond to your invitation,
we remember you.

Music for reflection after Communion

‘How Beautiful are the feet’ (G F Handel) sung by Akan Edet

Post-Communion Prayer

President  Blessed God, help us, whom you have fed and satisfied in this Eucharist to hunger and thirst for what is right; help us, who here have rejoiced and been glad,
to stand with those who are persecuted and reviled help us, who here have glimpsed the life of heaven, to strive for the cause of right,
and for the coming of the kingdom of Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns now and for ever.

All  Amen.

All  Merciful God,
you have called us to your table and fed us with the bread of life.
Draw us and all people to serve your Son,
your Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.

Please stand, if you are able

The Dismissal

Charge and Blessing  The Rt Revd Dr David Walker
Bishop of Manchester (He, Him, His)
Final Song – ‘Crown Him With Many Crowns’

Crown him with many crowns,
the Lamb upon his throne.
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
all music but its own.
Awake, my soul, and sing
of him who died for thee, and hail him as thy matchless king through all eternity.

Crown him the Lord of life,
who triumphed o'er the grave,
and rose victorious in the strife for those he came to save;
his glories now we sing who died and rose on high, who died eternal life to bring,
and lives that death may die.

Crown him the Lord of love;
behold his hands and side,
rich wounds, yet visible above,
in beauty glorified;
no angels in the sky
can fully bear that sight, but downward bends their burning eye at mysteries so bright.

Crown him the Lord of years,
the potentate of time,
creator of the rolling spheres,
ineffably sublime.
All hail, Redeemer, hail!
for thou hast died for me;
thy praise shall never, never fail throughout eternity.
